A PITIFUL SIGHT.

What Trouble a Drunken Hunband Caused a Sorrowful Wife.

Saturday night there was a great deal of excitement on Summer street at the result of the untiring treatment of his wife by a drunken husband and the pitiful endeavors of the young woman to have him return home with her.

The man was Dwight Sherman. He and his wife have been married about eight months and the young man's habits from that time until a very recent date have been good. Last week, however, he had a spree of the largest size and Saturday his unhappy young wife went from saloon to saloon after him in order to bring him home, where he had not been for three or more days. She found him in a barroom somewhere about town and he started with her, but when the couple reached Summer street Dwight changed his mind. There was a horse and carriage standing near by, and, breaking away from Mrs. Sherman, Dwight jumped into the carriage and drove up the street. Mrs. Sherman ran after him and the carriage until she could stand no longer and fell in the middle of the road in a dead faint.

A large crowd witnessed the scene and when Mrs. Sherman fell they gathered around, sprinkled her face with water, rubbed her hands and used every possible method to bring her back to consciousness. Meantime the owner of the horse and carriage chased Sherman, yelling at the top of his voice, and when he caught him, he drove him back to where his unhappy spouse was being attended to by the anxious crowd.

When all was over the young man went home with Mrs. Sherman.

Beginning of Lawn Parties.
For the past few summers lawn parties have been very popular in this town, and they will begin again Friday evening, when the women of the Baptist church will hold one on John L. Barker's lawn on Park street. Every arrangement will be made to make the affair a pleasant one, and should the weather Friday evening prove unfavorable the fete will be held on Saturday evening instead. The young men and women of St. Charles' parish are assisting Rev. Mrs. Moran and Coyne to arrange another, which will be held on the grounds in front of the parochial residence on the evenings of July 1, 2 and 3, and the details will be settled soon.

A Pig-Catching Dog.

A pig owned by A. W. DeBarthe got out of its pen Monday afternoon and after a large crowd of men and boys had made a fruitless attempt to get the porker back into its domicile, Liveryman J. R. Wieschner's big bull dog joined in the chase. The canine was more successful than his human companions and finally got a firm hold of the pig's ear. There was squalling of a high order for a few minutes but the dog didn't mind that and led his captive directly to the pen and kept him there until some of the men fixed the pen again and inclosed the pig.

On Murray Street Crossing.

Thursday the state railway commissioners will have a hearing at Boston on the granting of a crossing over the Boston and Albany track from Columbia to Murray street. Clerk F. H. B. Munson, Selectman M. C. Almstil and several prominent and influential citizens will represent the town in the matter, and as the county commissioners have already granted the crossing and the railway company consider the place safer than Hoosier street, there is no doubt but that the decision of the board will be pleasing to the town.

In Court.

Judge Bixby disposed of three cases in the district court Monday morning.

James Langdon pleaded guilty to drunkenness, fined 55.

Joseph Belen pleaded guilty to drunkenness and last driving, fined $5 on each charge.

Dusty Reeves pleaded guilty to drunkenness, fined $5.

Joseph Hanniker was placed on three months probation this morning for drunkenness.

Ran Into a Bicyclist.

Sunday morning as Mrs. Patrick Fern was crossing the road in front of her home on Columbia street at Renfrew to board an electric car to go to church, an unknown wheelman ran into her knocking her down and both he and his bicycle fell upon her. Mrs. Fern was taken into the house where her injuries were found to be quite severe. The wheelman was not injured to any extent.

The Frost meat market on Park street has been re-opened.

Jeweler F. W. Roberts is forming a watch club.

There was no important business done at Monday evening's meeting of the board of health.

Charles E. Hubbard has made a transfer of real estate to Ed. Anthony, for $1000.

R. F. Sligg's spotted horse ran away Monday afternoon. Starting near the Commercial house, it ran around the corner of Myrtle and Center streets and over Park street to the barn in the rear of Haworth's block. No damage was done until the animal reached the barn, and then the wagon was injured considerably.

Berkshire Lodge, F. & A. M., will go to Great Barrington Wednesday, to attend the celebration of Cincinnati Lodge of that town. Rev. Dr. Zahner will open the exercises with prayer.

The first band concert of the season will be given by Lafayette band from the Center street band Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Dwyer spent Sunday in Pittsfield.

George Morgan, conductor on the street railway, is attending superior court as a juror, and George Buntz is working in his place.

Division 3, A. O. H., has purchased a new and handsome United States flag.

The Renfrew will play two games of ball in North Adams July 4. McKenney will pitch one and Buckley the other.

The Derby's will play the Clippers on the Renfrew grounds Saturday afternoon.

The local bakers have mutually agreed to close their shops at noon on the Fourth of July.

W. C. Phillips, who resides next door to the Methodist church, does good work as a painter and paper hanger. The number of his post office box is 322.

CHESHIRE.

C. Donna of New Jersey is stopping in town with his brother.

Peter Donovan is at Westfield today to witness the graduation of his daughter at the Normal school. The following from Cheshire graduate there today: Miss Anna E. Donovan and Anna C. Donna, Mr. Dean, chairman of the school board, and Mary Donna went there with others to attend the graduation.

The Baptists have an ice cream and cake sociable on the lawn by the church this evening.

Those school girls who go to Adams on the train are sprinting home occasionally.

If they are as persevering in this effort they will make a mark in the world.

The school committee met Monday evening to prepare the graduation exercises to be held Thursday evening.

Mrs. Fiske returned on Monday from Lenox where she has been for a few days at her native town.

Harry Leonard, who attends school at Adams will graduate there on Thursday evening.

LEADERS NET AT ALBANY LAST NIGHT

Conference at the Residence of Senator Hill—Delegates-at-large Selected and the Regular State Platform to Be Adopted.

Albany, June 23.—Several of the prominent democratic leaders were in Albany last night. Chairman J. W. Hinkley of the state committee arrived from Tonguekeep on an early evening train and proceeded at once to Senator Hill's home. Wolpert's Roost, where he spent the night as the senator's guest. Ex-secretary of the Navy Whitney accompanied him. Senator Hill, Mr. Whitney and Mr. Hinkley will start this afternoon for Saratoga, to be on hand to greet the delegates to-morrow's convention. Senator Hill met his guests apparently by previous appointment. A long conference ensued between the leaders at his home. The discussion was, of course, mainly on the state platform to be adopted and the fight to be made for honest money at Chicago. It is understood that the four delegates-at-large to the Chicago convention have been decided upon. Senators Hill and Murphy, ex-Gov. Roswell P. Flower and Frederick R. Conder of New York city are the names settled upon. Mr. Whitney reiterated his desire not to go as a delegate, and Mr. Conder was practically decided upon as the fourth delegate-at-large last evening. It is well known that Senator Murphy, although he will be elected a delegate-at-large, does not intend to go to Chicago. As alternates to Senator Murphy two names are mentioned as probabilities, ex-postmaster-general Wilson S. Bissell of Buffalo and ex-mayor William R. Grace of New York. If Mr. Conder is put on as a delegate, Mr. Bissell rather than Mr. Grace will probably be selected for Senator Murphy's alternate, both Mr. Conder and Mr. Grace coming from New York city. Hon. John Boyd Thacher, mayor of Albany, will be temporary chairman of the convention and it is settled that the temporary organization shall be made permanent. Mr. Thacher's speech will be brief and the session of the convention itself is expected will only last until evening of Wednesday. Senator McCrory of Brooklyn and a few other prominent delegates came in by the evening trains last night and stopped over in Albany for the night. Ex-Gov. Flower will pass through from New York city to Saratoga today. The financial plank of the platform will follow the lines laid down in previous state platforms and declare for the gold standard. Bimetallism will only be recognized through an international agreement.

Democrats Arriving at Saratoga.— Saratoga, N. Y., June 23.—Only a handful of delegates to to-morrow's democratic convention had arrived this morning, but by to-night the town will probably be crowded. Ex-Mayor Gilroy, Francis M. Scott and one or two others from New York city are here. Henry D. Purroy has been here since Sunday. The convention hall is in order, the hotels have wide open doors and the town is ready to receive any number of democratic statesmen and wire pullers. The only regret of the townspeople and hotel proprietors is that there is little prospect of more than one day's session of the convention. There was nothing theatrical or demonstrative about it, neither of the gentlemen being inclined to exhibit emotion even under the most trying circumstances. Mr. Hanna came down on the Valley railroad in his private car, accompanied by Mrs. Hanna, Hon. Henry Clay Evans, Col. and Mrs. Fred Grant of New York; Wm. Osborn, a cousin of the major's, ex-police commissioner of Boston; Messrs. Myron T. Herrick and Sylvester Everett of Cleveland. Major McKinley took Mrs. Hanna, Mrs. Grant and Mr. Evans with him in the family carriage and drawn by the staid old white horse they proceeded sedately and securely to the house. The other gentlemen used public conveyances, Messrs. Herrick and Everett repairing to one of the hotels. Shortly after reaching the house lunch was served.

Can't Inspect Vanderbilt's Books.— New York, June 23.—Justice Poynt of the supreme court has handed down a decision denying the motion of William H. Brown of Chicago to be permitted to inspect the books of the late Commodore Vanderbilt. Brown is a member of the Chicago board of trade. He desired to see the books preparatory to bringing suit against the Vanderbilt estate for $2,000,000.

Distribution of Armenian Relief.— Washington, June 23.—About the mode of distribution in Turkey of the money collected abroad, the Turkish legation has received from the submissi- port the following dispatch under date of the 6th inst.: "The subscriptions collected for the people of Anatolia are distributed by the delegates of the relief committee in the presence of one member of the local commission."

To Be Dined by the Queen.— London, June 23.—Sir Donald Smith, the Canadian High commissioner in London, and Sir Mackenzie Bowell, the former premier of Canada, and delegates from the Montreal chamber of commerce to the recent congress of the chambers of commerce of the British empire will dine at Windsor castle soon after the queen's return here from Scotland.

Capital Stock Increased $5,000,000.— New York, June 23.—At a meeting of the American Telephone & Telegraph company stockholders it was voted to ratify the resolution of the board of directors recently adopted to add $5,000,000 to the capital stock. The capital stock was $10,000,000, and now it is made $15,000,000.

To Meet in Washington in '96.— Glasgow, June 23.—The Pan-Presbyterian council has unanimously accepted the invitation to hold its meeting at Washington in 1896 and has thanked San Francisco for the invitation extended by that city.

McKinley to Speak at Brooklyn.— Brooklyn, N. Y., June 23.—Major McKinley will visit Brooklyn during the campaign and will undoubtedly address one or more mass meetings. Two prominent members of Brooklyn's Union League club were at McKinley's house in Canton, O., at the time of the nomination, and are said to have secured the nominee's promise to come to their city this summer.

Republican Ratification at East Orange.— East Orange, N. J., June 23.—A large and enthusiastic McKinley and Hobart ratification meeting was held in the Town hall here last night, and the first campaign banner in the state was raised at the corner of Arlington avenue and Main street amid cheers and the setting off of great quantities of fireworks.

Another Trolley Victim.— Newark, N. J., June 23.—George Datermilk, 6 years old, was crushed to death under a trolley car on which he attempted to steal a ride yesterday afternoon. The wheels of the car passed over his head.

CELEBRATION AT PATERSON.

Democrats Join the Republicans in the Hobart Jollification Last Night.

PATERSON, N. J., June 23.—This city was brilliantly illuminated and decorated last night in honor of Garret A. Hobart for vice-president. Between 5,000 and 6,000 citizens of all political parties joined in a procession to the armory, where 5,000 persons, mostly women, were in waiting for the parade. All the musical organizations in the city were engaged for the occasion. While marching round the interior of the spacious building the spectacle reminded one of Kirby's "Fall of Rome." Pandemonium reigned supreme within the enclosure for nearly twenty minutes after the last banner became motionless. Judge John Hopper, a democrat, was the first speaker. After paying a high compliment to the candidate for vice-president and his career in Patterson, he introduced Mayor Whitney, accompanied him. Senator Hill, Mr. Whitney and Mr. Hinkley will start this afternoon for Saratoga, to be on hand to greet the delegates to-morrow's convention. Senator Hill met his guests apparently by previous appointment. A long conference ensued between the leaders at his home. The discussion was, of course, mainly on the state platform to be adopted and the fight to be made for honest money at Chicago. It is understood that if he was elected vice-president none in this city would rejoice more over his election than those of the opposite party.

Mr. Hobart's Remarks.

When Mr. Hobart advanced to the front of the platform, which was heavily laden with floral pieces the audience went wild with enthusiasm, the women cheering more lustily than the male portion of the assemblage. Mr. Hobart confined his remarks to the city and people of Paterson, and said that he would rather have the esteem and confidence of the people, such as was manifested at the present moment, than any office within the gift of any political organization. He referred to the smallness of the town when he came here thirty years ago and its rapid growth from that time. At the conclusion of his speech he quoted the following lines from Robert Burns:

"The bridegroom may forget the bride, who was made his wedded wife yester'en."

The monarch may forget the crown that op his brow an honor hath been, The mother may forget the babe that smiles so sweetly on her knee, But I'll remember the Glenearn and that thou hast done for me."

MAJOR M'KINLEY'S CALLERS.

Mary Hanna, H. Clay Evans and Others Visit Canton.

CANTON, O., June 23.—Hon. Henry Clay Evans, the defeated candidate for the vice-presidential nomination, who came here yesterday with Mr. Hanna and party, expressed himself to a United Press reporter as being well satisfied with the ticket. Mr. Evans was his usual frank, entertaining self and responded readily to a suggestion for an interview. "What do you think of the ticket, now that it does not include the name of Evans?" he was asked. "I think it is a first rate combination." It was his hearty answer, "and a sure winner." It will go well in our part of the country." "Is there any chance for carrying Tennessee?" "Indeed there is, much more than a fighting chance, too. Our gubernatorial contest will give us votes. The democrats nominated Bob Taylor as the only man they could possibly elect. He served two terms and made a very poor governor." Mr. Evans returned to Cleveland last evening and left once for Chattanooga. The meeting between Major McKinley and Mr. Hanna was the first since the convention. There was nothing theatrical or demonstrative about it, neither of the gentlemen being inclined to exhibit emotion even under the most trying circumstances. Mr. Hanna came down on the Valley railroad in his private car, accompanied by Mrs. Hanna, Hon. Henry Clay Evans, Col. and Mrs. Fred Grant of New York; Wm. Osborn, a cousin of the major's, ex-police commissioner of Boston; Messrs. Myron T. Herrick and Sylvester Everett of Cleveland. Major McKinley took Mrs. Hanna, Mrs. Grant and Mr. Evans with him in the family carriage and drawn by the staid old white horse they proceeded sedately and securely to the house. The other gentlemen used public conveyances, Messrs. Herrick and Everett repairing to one of the hotels. Shortly after reaching the house lunch was served.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The first official report that has reached Washington of the great Japanese earthquake and tidal wave came yesterday to the state department from Mr. Herod, secretary of our legation at Tokio, in the following brief cable dispatch, which, however, makes the calamity out to be much worse than heretofore reported: "Death caused by tidal wave estimated at over 30,000 in reports up to date. No mortality in reports up to date. No mortality among Americans."
